Winnifred “Winnie” Betty Kvamme (Neuenfeld)

Apr. 17, 1930-Oct. 5, 2023
Winnifred “Winnie” Betty Kvamme (Neuenfeld), 93, of Kettering went to meet her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Thursday, October 5, 2023.
She was born on April 17, 1930, in Lunds Valley, ND, the daughter of Frederick and Cora Neuenfeld. She married Gordon Kvamme on June 5, 1960, in Palermo, ND. They lived on a farm and raised beef and dairy cows just north of town until they divorced in 1996.
Winnie was a wonderful and caring mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, and will be missed terribly. She was kind and sweet, with a very patient and laid-back personality. You could always find her with a smile on her face, and she always looked on the bright side of life despite any circumstances. She loved to laugh and chat with family, friends, and neighbors while having coffee and any kind of sweets such as cookies, pies, and cake. She would always find time to visit!
She also looked forward to outings with her friends in the Get-together Club in Palermo, ND.
Winnie was an avid reader, enjoyed gardening, and knew the weather conditions on any given day. She should have been a meteorologist or ornithologist. She adored birds of all species and enjoyed feeding and watching which birds would grace the feeder or windows daily.
Winnie was well-known and well-loved in Palermo and Stanley, ND where she lived for 82 years. She graduated from Stanley (ND) High School in 1949. She worked very hard on the farm and was always the first one out to the barn. She also worked part-time at Stanley Medical Clinic, Palermo School, Farmer’s Union Insurance, Mark-it-Foods, and Piggly Wiggly.

Her longest tenure of work was at the Mountrail County Bethel Home; she worked there for 17 years in the laundry department. She finally retired in the spring of 2012 at the age of 82. Anywhere she worked, she was adored by her co-workers because she was hard-working, fun, and a team player.
She moved in with her daughter, Lanae (Kvamme) Scott, and Lanae’s husband, Roger Scott, in October 2012 and lived in Kettering, Ohio until her death.
Winnie was preceded in death by her parents; brothers, LeRoy and Robert Neuenfeld, sister-in-law, Sylvia Neuenfeld; infant son, Gorwin Kvamme; and daughter, Lori Kvamme Zeff.
Winnie is survived by one son, Leland of Cornell, WI; one daughter, Lanae (Roger) Scott of Kettering, OH; five grandchildren, Cody (Jennifer) Kvamme, Spencer Lucas, Shanawn (Andrew) Neeser, Jacob (Britney) Lucas, and Mariah Kvamme; and seven great-grandchildren, Greysen, Westin and Avelyn Neeser, Jonah and Uriah Lucas; Cora and Quinn Kvamme.
Winnie absolutely loved being a mom, grandma, and great-grandma. She could never give the little ones enough hugs and kisses and loved rocking them to sleep.
She was a long-time member of Faith Lutheran Church in Palermo, North Dakota. She was active in the church ladies’ aid circle and bible study. While living in Ohio, she attended church with her daughter, Lanae, and Lanae’s husband, Roger, at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Kettering, Ohio.
She served others to the end; she even donated her body to science, to Wright State University’s Anatomical Gift Program.
The memorial service to celebrate Winnie’s life will be held at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, 4865 Wilmington Pike, Dayton, OH 45440, on Saturday, December 2, 2023, at 5:30 p.m. (Eastern Time). For those unable to attend, Winnie’s service will be livestreamed on the church’s website, <https://emmanuelc.org/>. Supper and fellowship with the family will follow the service at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 901 E. Stroop Rd., Kettering, OH 45429.
In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial donations to the National Alzheimer’s Association and/or Day City Hospice, 7601 Paragon Rd., Ste. 203 Dayton, OH, 45459. Fond memories and expressions of sympathy may be made at www.routsong.com.

Wayne Taylor
July 30, 1933-Oct. 14, 2023
Wayne H. Taylor, 90, of Minot died Saturday, October 14, 2023, at Trinity Hospital in Minot.
Wayne was born on July 30, 1933, in Stanley, to Frank B. and Hattie L. (Hylland) Taylor. He grew up in Stanley as the eldest of two brothers, Bruce Taylor (Judy). He graduated from Stanley High School in 1951. He then proceeded on to college, graduating from Jamestown College in 1958.
From there he went on to teach High School from 1958 to 1970. He taught in Fortuna, Underwood, and Park River. While teaching in Underwood, he met Minnie D. Taylor (Zuck), and they were united in marriage on July 24, 1964.
Wayne and Minnie eventually settled in Minot in 1970 where they raised their four children, Larry D. Taylor, Timothy W. Taylor, Loretta A. Haase and Barry H. Taylor. Wayne became a custodian at Nedrose Elementary School in 1977 and remained there until he retired in 2001.
In October of 2002 he lost his wife Minnie of 38 years. After his retirement and the passing of Minnie, Wayne filled his time with friends, family and doing many things to support his church, First Presbyterian Church of Minot, now known as Cornerstone Presbyterian Church. He served as an Elder, volunteer in the kitchen to help serve meals in the church’s “Community Supper” as well as any area he was able to help. Not only did this fill his time, but it created many lasting friendships for him.
Wayne is survived by his brother; four children; five grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; as well as many nieces, nephews, and cousins.
Wayne was proceeded in death by his parents, Franklin and Hattie Taylor; and his wife, Minnie D. Taylor.
Funeral service was held on November 25, 2023, at Cornerstone Presbyterian Church in Minot. To view a livestream of the service or to share memories access his obituary www.thomasfamilyfuneral-home.com.
