Celebrations from the Month

This past month has been filled with remarkable events showcasing the hard work and dedication of our students:

Grant County Ag Day: On November 13th, ten members participated in educating 4th and 5th graders about various agriculture-related topics. We reached 85 students, teaching them about tractor safety, roots and stems, seed identification, and feed rations. Thank you to the Grant County FSA and Extension Office for organizing such a fantastic event!

District 7 FFA Leadership Event: On November 19th, 15 Flasher FFA members braved the wind and cold to attend the leadership event at the NECE building at BSC. Highlights included:
•James G secured 3rd

in Extemporaneous Speaking and Silver in Prepared Public Speaking.
•The duo of Cassy H and Payton O earned a Gold for their demonstration on cattle castration.
•The Greenhand and Advanced Quiz teams received Bronze medals, showcasing their hard work against tough competition.
•McKenzie Hartman earned a Bronze ribbon in the Employment

Skills event.
•Our officer team competed in the Parliamentary Procedure event, receiving a Bronze ribbon and demonstrating significant improvement over the two months of practice.
We are incredibly proud of our students' achievements and their dedication.
Warm regards,
Tyler Rossow
