start getting warmer at the plate in the next few games. "I think we need to improve our approach at the plate as hitters," he said. "Our hitters need to have more confidence when they step into the batters' box and find ways to put the ball in play. We will always have a chance to win games if we can put the ball in play as hitters."

Leintz said he did see improvement on the defensive side of the ball, which he said has been progressing week by week.

"We are getting better in the field with more reps and the experience our players are getting," he said.

Leintz talked with his team about preparedness and having the right mindset for each game.

"We cannot afford to take any games off because the competition in our region is tough and we will have to play well if we want to have success," he said.

Hazen's April 17 game vs. Hettinger-Scranton/New England was postponed due to inclement weather and has yet to be rescheduled. Results from Tuesday's home game against Washburn and the away game at Beulah today, will be published in next week's edition.
