A Peace pilgrim lady dropped into the Hebron Herald office last week on the second half of her 10,000 mile walking pilgrimage for world disarmament and peace. She had already walked coast to coast and border to border. She is now walking at least one hundred miles in each state, Mexico and Canada. Her vow "Until Mankind has learned the way of peace, I shall remain a wanderer, walking until I am given shelter, fasting until I am given food, using money given to me to spread the peace message."
