PASTOR’S NOTES

Pastor Paul Ferrie,
Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus

In order to resume our study in Colossians 3:7 today, we need to see the context from verses 5 and 6: “Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience.” We have considered this list of sins that believers are commanded to put away, along with the consequence of God’s wrath that will result upon those who refuse to repent and bow to God’s Word. Now we see in verse 7 Paul’s comment about the Colossians: “in which you yourselves once walked when you lived in them.” The sins listed in verse 5 characterized the Colossians in their pre-Christian days. “Walk” is the verb Paul customarily uses to describe one’s way of life and conduct. It shows a pattern that characterizes a life.

There are some frightening passages in the Bible which seem to say that if a person commits certain sins, he or she will perish. For instance, we read in 1 Corinthians 6:9-10, “Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, nor sodomites, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God.” Yet, note what Paul goes on to say in verse 11: “And such were some of you. But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God.”

It is important to note that there is a difference between committing sins and walking in sins. We must never go light on sin or excuse it. Yet we can be comforted that believers have been forgiven because they are trusting in the perfect payment which Christ provided for His people. But what if a believer falls back into a sin mentioned in these lists? Is that one no longer saved? All believers sin, and some believers fall back into such sins as mentioned. But there is a difference between pursuing a life of sin, as the Colossian and Corinthian believers did before their conversion, and falling into sin while seeking to grow as a Christian and depart from all sin. The person who should be alarmed is the one who claims to be a Christian but who has no concern about sin in his or her life. One who says it’s okay to sin because the blood of Christ has washed it away is demonstrating that he or she is probably NOT saved. For while it is true that the blood of Christ will wash away every sin the true believer ever commits, at the same time, the Holy Spirit works in the hearts of true believers, making them hate sin and want to get rid of it. Surely the person who has been born again and come to love the Lord Jesus Christ will find it more and more repulsive to keep committing the very things for which Christ had to die.

If a true believer does try to live in sin, he or she is going to be a miserable person because the Holy Spirit will keep convicting and driving that one to repentance. This is the difference between an unbeliever and a backslidden Christian. An unbeliever can carelessly go on in sin, whereas the backslidden believer cannot because the Holy Spirit will not let him be comfortable in sin. Friends, it is unimaginably better to live life on this earth as a believer, even with the ongoing uncomfortable working of the Holy Spirit to convict of sin, than to live estranged from God and spend eternity under His wrath. Have you placed your trust in Christ alone to make you right with God?
