November 2025

November is the time to be thankful, a time to remember, and embrace those who enrich our lives.

Activities on monthly calendar included games of frisbee toss, pit ball fun, basketball, and fitness fun. Nutrition during reading time for newspapers and magazines starts the day with friends visiting. Drumming sessions start with gentle warm-up exercises to prepare participants for physical activity with simple rhythms. Drumming is enjoyable and gives everyone a chance to express themselves in social interaction while enjoying making music. Friday Night Bingo is enjoyed by the residents.

“And the beat goes on...” with Sonny directing the choir. Laure strummed the guitar while Coleen’s keyboard backed up the vocal harmonies of our favorite musical selections. What was a favorite? Beer Barrel Polka!

On November 7th veterans were invited to attend the ‘Veterans Day at NPS” hosted by the American Legion and Auxiliary with the assistance of many students and staff. Ben Rohrich and Peter Kuntz attended this event.

On Veterans Day, November 11th the resident veterans, Ben Roehrich, Marvin Olson, Peter Kuntz, Marvin Wentz, and Del Mann were recognized by the staff and residents during the noon meal on Veterans Day.

“Thank you for your service.”

Fresh Start Preschool children and teachers visited the Wentz Living Center and shared an activity with the residents.

Pleasing aromas of Baking with Becky offered the fresh baked delights of chocolate chip cookies and peanut butter cookies. A Star Pocket Craft was shared with the residents as they remembered family or friends who were or are soldiers. Some of the ladies created a pot of decorative flowers for their room.
