Kennedy's gets SUPER FRESH with community via Giving Hearts Truckload Sale

TED UECKER
WRHS Foundation

On Wednesday, January 29th, Kennedy's Fresh Foods, the local grocer and giving leader for the Greater Hettinger Area, recently brought in what was probably the most SUPER FRESHEST-ever fruits and vegetables for their "Kennedy's Giving Hearts Truckload Sale!" Teaming up with the local West River Health Services Foundation, Kennedy's did the heavy lifting, bringing in 4,700 pounds of fresh fruits and vegetables – strawberries, blackberries, Anjou pears, navel oranges, Dole gold pineapples, pink lady apples, large mangos, garden salad bags, peeled carrots, broccoli, avocados, bell peppers, grape tomatoes, whole mushrooms, yellow onions and cucumbers – almost every shopper was filling their brown bags full to overflowing! These fruits and veggies were by far the freshest we've ever received! And for only $25 per bag full!!! What a deal – considering the price of food and transportation nowadays.

You read that correctly – only $25 to fill your brown bag to "past the top" with the freshest January fruits and vegetables (maybe ever!). And 161 bags were filled on this day alone! Of course, Kennedy's, in their always giving community spirit, agreed to "pay forward" 10% or $2.50 per bag. That would equal $402.50. But not Kennedy's – their sending $500 to the area healthcare leader's fundraising machine, West River Health Services Foundation. What terrific community-minded people we have running our all-important local grocery store. They've been partnering with the WRHS Foundation since the beginning, whether preparing turkeys and offering their facilities annually for preparation of our "Community Turkey Luncheon" to serve 700 meals; or preparing and gifting brown bag lunches for all of the performers and setup/teardown crew with the "Magical Medora Christmas Show." And we hope for more partnerships with this amazing outfit in the future. West River Health Services and Kennedy's Fresh Foods wants this community to work – and they sure give back to aid in our development. Thank you Kyle, Mike and Staff.

Of course, the weather was perfect o this day! Almost 50 degrees and sunshine and blue sky and hardly any wind! So everyone was rushing down to Kennedy's to get this fresh produce. The parking lot was full. Heck, people were parking around the block! Not sure we've ever seen this before. It was a madhouse in that grocery store! A good problem to have for sure.

Also during this amazing truckload sale, the WRHS Foundation was there to greet and meet most everyone who came through the till! We offered Giving Hearts Day swag to those who gave $10-$25. If they gave $25 or more to our WRHS Foundation, they received "We CARE Together" t-shirts. We also offered two of these shirts and a chance to be part of a drawing for four, $100 Kennedy's Gift Cards and a 32-quart stainless steel broil pot with colander (if you gifted $50 or more). The winners of the drawings were: Barb West, Kevin Schneider, Kim Honeyman and Leah Gunther for the $100 Kennedy's gift cards and Grant Miller will be having a broil soon!

On the day, from 9am through 6pm, our WRHS Foundation (including Ted and Molly Wolf on this day) received 69 gifts from our giving public, ranging from $5 to $500! Our total gifts collected were a whopping $4,900!!!! With Kennedy's $500 gift, we raised a grand total of $5,400!!! All for improving our top-quality healthcare system. We've never had a 7 pallet, 4,700 pound, $5,400 Truckload Sale! EVER!

We truly are "Communities United for the FUTURE of Top-Quality Healthcare Close to Home." Thank you Kennedy's for all you do. Onward to "Giving Hearts Day" on February 13th! Anyone and everyone can give $10 or more anytime between now and 2/13 at givingheartstoday.org and search West River Health. Or call Ted at 701-567-3666 and he'll swing by to pick up your check written to "WRHSF" with "Giving Hearts Day" written in the memo section. Thank you. TOGETHER we are COMMUNITY STRONG.
