In Loving Memory of Greg, Chad and Brian

This article is dedicated to anyone who is missing their special someone for the holidays. Its not about gifts, or appearances, or rushing to get everything done. It's truly about enjoying being together and loving the ones you have left!
Love, Mom, Dad, Heidi, and Family

Dear Lord- I Wonder

I know it's wrong to question
The workings of your plan,
But I can't help but wonder
And I pray you understand.

To us our children you've only lent
To teach and hold to Love,
But I can't help but miss them.
Do you hear me Lord above?

The loneliness since they've been gone
Is oh so hard to bear,
I long to see and hear them
And tassel with their hair.

I wonder if I raised them
The way you thought I should,
Or did I make too many mistakes
As only a parent could.

I wonder if the ache and pain
Will ever go away,
If I'll find peace and happiness
Another happy day.

I wonder if they miss me
And think about me some,
I wonder if they're waiting
For the day I too shall come.

I wonder if in heaven
They ever think of me,
Or is their life so beautiful
We parents, they don't see.

The holidays are coming, Lord.
I don't know what to do,
I know there's other children
But I wish the days were through.

Now Lord, I need a favor
For myself and for my friends,
I ask you for forgiveness
For our hearts that will not mend.

I need to ask you one thing more
Before I let you go,
Will you wish our kids a
Merry Christmas
Hug them and tell them we miss and Love them so!
