Carson News Lois Stewart

Franics (Hlavinka) Strom, Bismarck, formerly of Lark, passed away recently. Francis was a teacher at Carson Roosevelt School many years ago. May she rest in peace and her memory be a blessing.

Sonja Sprenger, Carson, died recently, our thoughts and prayers are with her family and many friends.

Did anyone stay up till about 1:00 a.m. last Thursday to observe the total Lunar Eclipse?

My intentions were good, but as usual I fell asleep and missed it all. Happens every time.

Carson native Jared Fischer and wife Sarah have moved back home, and he is now the newly appointed Emergency Manager/911 Coordinator for Grant County. Fischer was born and raised in Carson and we welcome him home.

Rose Besser spent the 7th and 8th at Hazen with her granddaughter Alice. She spent a Mrs. Kraft presented two National Conference proposals for 8 teachers. The first proposal to "7 Mindsets Conference" in Orlando Florida - $15,592.00. The second proposal "Get Your Teach On Conference" – Dallas Texas - $19,286.00. The school board agreed to have a policy written regarding National Conference Attendance.

Mr. Wilson presented the Superintendent's report.
OLD BUSINESS
The school board recog-couple of nights there. On Sunday the conditions were just right to fly kites. Each of the grandchildren had a kite and they stayed in the air! Enjoyable for all. From there Rose went to Bismarck with Utsi and spent two nights there. They did business, shopped and visited. She saw Lillian Fuchs and she was very well. Home again, coffee, and reading.

Desi, my all-black companion kitty, seems to have a following. Last Thursday morning at Java N' Junk Irvin Werner sat with us gals for a while for coffee, nized the teachers' negotiating unit with signatures.

she could get started as soon as she gets home. I still have a little time to plan ours.

Flasher Public School will have Parent Teacher Conferences March 27th from 3:30-9:30pm. This is also Family Fun Night from 5-6:30pm. There will be no school on Friday, March 28th for Teacher Comp Day. Flasher Prom is April 5th.

We continue to pray for some early April showers to water our land. I did some raking last week and noticed it is quite dry. Spring is Mason Jochim, Bismarck, took part in the Coyote Hunt this past weekend.

Bert and Sherry Harsche and Dillan went to Bismarck to a birthday party for Sherry Murphy on Saturday.

The Coyote Hunt held last Saturday was a great success. Tay eGross and Mason Jochim took first with seven coyotes and the biggest. The Bachmeier's, Carson, took second with 7 coyotes and littlest coyote.

A birthday dinner was held last Sunday at Marlin's Bismarck, for Arlene Bahm and her two great granddaughters, Kennalei & Rhilyn Bercier, Washburn, her children, grandkids, great grandkids and one great, great grandson were there. Other friends were also there.

Friends and neighbors helped Levi Magilke celebrate his birthday Tuesday night at the Sheilds Bar and Grill.

Ranchers are busy calving. The weather has been great. We need much needed moisture.

Riehl Point of View Gina Riehl

I enjoyed a wonderful week visiting with my sister, Kim, and brother in love, JR last week. They headed back home to dodge any snowstorms here, but ending up facing some tornado weather there. I guess it's not perfect anywhere, except Heaven of course! We had lots of fun playing games in the evening and just enjoying everyday life throughout the time. One night we sat down and played piano and sang songs for her daughter who has been requesting a recording. We had a difficult time when we would try to sing the songs that we remember our momma singing. One of hers and our favorites was, "Momma's Teaching Angels How to Sing. There were no dry eyes after that one. I wish I had some recordings of her singing it. We also planned her garden so

Birthday wishes to my two grandchildren TaSheena Meyer, Flasher and Chris Bahm, Carrington, my two great grandchildren, DaShae Bahm, Bismarck and Kennalei Bercier, Washburn, Courtney Weinhandl, Reed Hertz, Carson, Larson Fast Horse, Terisa Harrison, Fort Yates, Charlee McLaughlin, Cannonball, Arlene Bahm.

Anniversary wishes to Bert and Sherry Harsche.

Angeal Quillan and girls, Mandan visited her folks, Gerard and Tess Kraft last Sunday.

The Froelich Ranch put on a Coyote Hunt. I remember the march 2-5th March blizzard of 1966. Blocked roads, snowbanks higher than the pick-up or tractor. A loss of so many cattle. WE were lucky that the electricity stayed on.

This week...

Birthday wishes to my great granddaughter Tatum Bahm, Bismarck, Levi Magilke, Lee Vetter, my great granddaughter Rhilyn Bercier, Washburn.
