

Representative Karen Rohr announces re-election campaign

Representative Karen M. Rohr of Mandan (R–District 31) formally announced her campaign for re-election to the North Dakota House of Representatives. Having served the people of District 31 since 2011, Rohr is running to continue her work on behalf of her constituents in Morton, Grant, Hettinger, and Sioux counties.

“Over the past decade, it is one of the greatest honors of my life to serve District 31,” Rohr said. “I am proud of the work we’ve done to support our rural communities, strengthen our health care system, and ensure that North Dakota remains a place where families, small businesses, and farms can thrive. But there is more work ahead — and with your continued support, I intend to keep fighting for you.”

A Proven Record, A Vision for the Future

As a consistent and principled conservative leader, Rep. Rohr brings to her re-election campaign a blend of experience, professional expertise, and deep community ties:

- Health Care Leadership: As a board-certified nurse practitioner with a PhD in Nursing, Rohr has used her expertise to inform her legislative priorities on health care, human services, and rural health transformation.
- Legislative Service: She currently serves on several key committees, including Human Services, Government and Veterans Affairs, Rural Health Transformation and serves on the State Hospital Governing Body.
- Community Engagement: A lifelong resident with deep roots in Mandan, Rohr is dedicated to maintaining open lines of communication with constituents, listening to their concerns, and being a reliable voice for rural North Dakota.

Key Priorities in the Campaign

In her re-election,

Rohr has identified several core priorities:

1. Improving Rural Health Care Access
2. Supporting Families & Seniors
3. Supporting Veteran Services
4. Fiscal Responsibility
5. Protecting Private Property Rights
6. Strengthening Local Economies

Rohr will continue advocating for policies that strengthen rural clinics, support telehealth, and ensure that all North Dakotans have access to quality medical care.

With her background in human services, she plans to push for reforms that support senior care, access to childcare, resources for family caregivers, mental health resources, substance use and abuse treatment programs, and social services tailored to the needs of rural communities.

She will support policies that focus on honoring military service by ensuring veterans and their families receive strong, reliable support in medical services, mental health support, job training and hiring incentives, educational benefits, housing assistance and programs to prevent veteran homelessness.

Rohr is committed to responsible budgeting that preserves vital services while keeping taxes manageable for families, farmers, and small businesses.

She will work to create an environment that encourages economic growth, particularly in agriculture, small business, and entrepreneurship — sectors that are lifelines for District 31.

Happy Thanksgiving to all! Sounds like it might be a wee bit cold, but we have certainly enjoyed the sunshine and warmer weather lately. I suppose winter must come at some point but according to the calendar it can wait another month.

Flasher Ladies Bulldogs had an awesome state volleyball tournament last week. Even though they didn’t win the overall, they placed sixth and are the best in the west region! Congratulations ladies!
