Newman, Hannah Attleson and Falk combined for 36 balls dug. Mandan had 90 team digs while the Jays only recorded 78. “We didn’t look so gritty tonight,” Hegerle said. “For the most part we just watched balls hit the floor: Mandan clearly was playing not just to win — they were playing hard and we were playing not to lose. “Two games ago, we were playing really, really well,” she said. “We are just complacent right now and going through the motions. That doesn’t work.”

NFL's soaring ratings continue with Dublin, SNF hits

The Pittsburgh Steelers’ 24-21 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFL’s debut game in Dublin drew 7.9 million viewers last Sunday, while the league closed out the night with an average of 26.9 million people watching Green Bay and Dallas battle to a 40-40 tie in prime time. The viewership for the Dublin game, which includes television and digital but not OTA numbers, is the second most-watched international game ever on the NFL Network, according to the league. It is topped only by the 2024 Miami-Kansas City game played in Frankfurt, Germany. The 7.9 million figure represents a 68% increase over the NFL Network’s average for its 2024 international games. The Steelers-Vikings also drew an average of more than nine million viewers between 12:30 p.m. ET and the end of the game. This season’s international games continues with three consecutive games in London, beginning with the Vikings playing the Cleveland Browns at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium at 9:30 a.m. ET on Sunday. Through the first four weeks of the season, NBC is averaging 25.5 million viewers for its Sunday night games, up 6% from last season.

3-time All-Pro LB Shaquille Leonard to retire with Colts

Three-time All-Pro linebacker Shaquille Leonard officially will retire from the NFL this weekend. The Indianapolis Colts announced Wednesday that Leonard will call it a career at halftime of their home game against the Las Vegas Raiders on Sunday. He will hold a press conference that morning at Lucas Oil Stadium. Leonard played parts of his first six seasons with the Colts, who selected him in the second round of the 2018 NFL Draft. He promptly won the NFL’s Defensive Rookie of the Year Award and was named a first-team All-Pro that season after leading the league in tackles with 163. Leonard, 30, was named as a first-team All-Pro in both 2020 and 2021 and was named to three Pro Bowls (2019-21). He led the NFL with eight forced fumbles in 2021. Leonard became the highest-paid linebacker in the league in August 2021, when he signed a five-year, $98.5 million extension. He was released by the Colts in November 2023 after he became frustrated with his playing time.

Avalanche D Erik Johnson retires after 17 seasons

Colorado Avalanche defenseman Erik Johnson announced his retirement on Wednesday after 17 NHL seasons. The No. 1 overall pick in the 2006 NHL Draft by St. Louis, Johnson won a Stanley Cup with Colorado in 2022. Johnson, 37, recorded 348 points (95 goals, 253 assists) and 555 penalty minutes in 1,023 career games. He spent parts of 14 seasons with the Avs and also played for the Blues, Buffalo Sabres and Philadelphia Flyers. The Minnesota native won a silver medal with Team USA at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver. He also won a bronze medal at the 2013 IIHF World Championship. Field Level Media still a lot to play for. There’s a lot on the line and Friday night is a huge game.” The Blue Jays are 0-2 at Charlotte and Gordon Hansen Stadium. “You’d like to think that there is a little bit of an extra chip on the kids’ shoulder because we haven’t played the best at home,” Nelson said. “We did good things early against Grand Forks Central and then we had spurts against Central Cass but then we got lost in some things. We are getting better, we are ... but at some point you need to start taking ownership of mistakes. “We just have to keep at it,” he said. “There’s a lot of kids who care about this program, this sport and this season. We’ll keep doing what we do and put our best foot forward and hopefully we can celebrate in a positive manner on Friday night — with a whole bunch of Blue Jay fans in the stands.” Dickinson is entering Friday night’s contest with a record of 1-3. The Mavericks’ one win came against Williston in week two. Dickinson outscored the Coyotes’ 49-0. “They are a little different than Devils Lake and

Devils Lake is a little different than Watford City and Watford City is different than Minot North and Minot North is different than Bismarck St. Mary’s,” Nelson said. “Everybody’s different, everybody’s got challenges, who’s going to win is who steps up and handles adversity and collectively works together the best.” kringer@jamestownsun.com | @KaitlynRinger on Twitter
