Newspaper readers will see an abundance of insurance statements

No tax dollars involved with publication

A law change will require a greater number of insurance abstract statements to be published in North Dakota newspapers this year.

During the 69th Legislative Assembly, the North Dakota Legislature enacted House Bill 1398, which modified the publishing requirements for insurance companies doing business in North Dakota. The change nearly doubles the number of companies required to publish these financial statements, and requires all companies to publish in all eight judicial districts.

These publications have occurred in North Dakota newspapers for decades, but readers will notice significantly more than usual.

Last year, all of the abstracts were distributed only to newspapers with the largest circulation in each judicial district. Prior to 2025, all newspapers shared equally in making these publications.

Traditionally, the notices were published in May, but so far, only about half have complied by supplying their information.

"This will require publication of these notices in batches, possibly stretching into July," said Cecile Wehrman, executive director of the North Dakota Newspaper Association.

Under N.D.C.C. § 26.1-03-10 as amended by House Bill 1398, an insurance company shall submit an abstract of the annual statement on the form prescribed by the commissioner. This abstract must be published at least three times in a newspaper of general circulation and evenly distributed for publication across all newspapers operating in each of the state's eight judicial districts. Proof of publication must be filed with the commissioner within four months after the filing of the annual statement.

"These changes came about as a means of restoring publication to all newspapers in the state, rather than concentrating publication only in the largest newspapers, as had been directed by the insurance commissioner," said Wehrman.

Payment for publication of these notices comes from the insurance companies. No tax dollars are involved.

The purpose of the statements is to provide consumers information about the financial stability of companies people pay premiums to for property/casualty, life and health insurance.

You can't "Delete" a newspaper.

Websites can crash and social media posts can be edited, but a public notice in print is a permanent, verifiable record of history. It is the third-party receipt for local government actions that can be referenced for decades to come.

OFFICIAL. PERMANENT. PUBLIC.
