For the 12th consecutive year, the Missoula Children's Theatre (MCT) returned to Wishek, transforming local elementary students into a professional stage troupe for a production of Cinderella.

The week-long residency began on Monday, May 4, as MCT directors arrived with a complete array of sets, props, and scripts. Supported this year by funding from the Parent Teacher Organization (PTO), the program kicked off with an intense afternoon of auditions to cast the classic fairy tale.

The young performers faced a rigorous rehearsal schedule, mastering their lines, complex staging, and choreography in just five days. The hard work culminated in a Friday performance before an enthusiastic crowd in the school gymnasium. The evening was a resounding success, celebrating both the students' theatrical growth and the community's continued dedication to the arts.
