Sun Country Airlines To Continue Las Vegas Service From Williston

The City of Williston is pleased to announce the return of seasonal nonstop service between Williston Basin International Airport (XWA) and Las Vegas with Sun Country Airlines beginning September 10, 2026. The service will operate twice weekly through December 13, 2026, with flights on Sundays and Thursdays.

This year's schedule has been adjusted to better align with traveler preferences, returning from a Monday flight back to Sundays. This seasonal route provides travelers from western North Dakota, eastern Montana, and southern Saskatchewan with convenient nonstop access to one of the country's top leisure destinations.

"We are excited to continue our partnership with Sun Country Airlines and to offer this country again for our community," said Ryan O'Rear, Airport Director. "With the shift back to Sunday and Thursday departures, we expect more convenient options for travelers throughout the season."

"Sun Country is pleased to be able to continue our seasonal service to Las Vegas for the Williston area," said Joe Beckendorf, Senior Director of Network Planning and Business Development. "We appreciate our partnership with the Williston Basin International Airport."

Seasonal air service continues to play an important role in the airport's strategy to expand connectivity and travel options for residents, businesses, and visitors. The continuation of this route reflects ongoing collaboration with airline partners to build and strengthen air service in the Williston region.
