

Memorial Day participants included Kiara Crosby, David Sigloh, Pastor Mark Turner and Melvin Christiansen.

Memorial Day Observed in Bowbells

by KAREN SCHWARTZ

The Bowbells American Legion Auxiliary hosted the Memorial Day service.

Commander Melvin Christiansen welcomed and thanked those attending for honoring the brave men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom.

The Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

Pastor Mark Turner gave the Invocation.

Kiara Crosby sang "Stand By Me" and shared some history regarding the song.

Gregory Jensen and Philip Ankenbauer, Bowbells Speech Team members, entertained the audience with their speech presentation.

Guest speaker, David Sigloh, National Guard Veteran, of Kenmare, reminded us to remember and honor our veterans. Sigloh shared his family members who served during war time and the importance of honoring all veterans.

Philip Ankenbauer and Gregory Jensen entertained the audience with a humorous duo speech.

Kiara Crosby sang "Jesus Loves Me."

Commander Christiansen thanked those who contributed to the day's program and invited the audience to a potluck meal following the program.

A 30 Seconds Standing Silence was followed with "Taps."

Pastor Mark Turner gave the Benediction.

Fellowship and meal time ended the service.

Bowbells

The Bowbells and surrounding communities express sympathy to the families of Keith Melby and Jan Kostad.

Hazel Herman and Mike went to the Hygge Hills restaurant on Sunday for dinner.

Ardelle McIntyre had a nice long visit with Mary Strom on Sunday. Mary is doing well.

Roxy Corey, Judy Tvetter, Dan and Laura Peterson, Dean and Sally Verstraete attended graduation celebration for Kennedy Corey. Kennedy graduated from Grand Forks Central High School.

Last week Thursday Eddie Redmer went to Doggie Day-care in Kenmare and David and Michelle headed to Bismarck for a Friday appointment. Friday, David and Michelle went from Bismarck to Hillsboro. They helped nephew, Andrew get ready for graduation on Sunday. It was a busy and awesome weekend spent with Michelle's family.

Movie Review

Breadwinner

Starring record-shattering comedian Nate Bargatze in his first feature film, The Breadwinner stars Bargatze as salesman Nate Wilcox and Mandy Moore as his wife, Katie. To Nate and their three children, Katie is the ultimate mom - she manages their comically chaotic household with equal parts efficiency and love, and everything runs perfectly.

But when Katie's household invention leads to a once-in-a-lifetime deal on Shark Tank and takes her on a prolonged business trip, Nate has to figure out how to keep the house from (literally) falling apart. He and his kids soon learn that while he may not do it like Mom, he can figure out how to do it his way. Welcome to the dad era.

This family comedy film is rated PG for some mild suggestive reference. The film is 1 hour and 35 minutes.

Breadwinner is playing at the Kenmare Theatre on June 5-8. Show times are Friday and Saturday at 7:00 and 9:15 p.m., Sunday at 7:00 p.m. and Monday at 7:00 p.m.
