Selfridge News

Debbie Vollmuth

Geri Mosset attended the funeral of Maggie (Leingang) Schlosser.

Lenore and Willy Mosset have some prairie dog hunters from Iowa visiting them.

Nick and Debbie Vollmuth, Allen and JoAnn Blotske, and Cindy and Clyde Graff got together on Friday evening to play cards and lots of laughing!

Saturday, June 13 was the 34th Annual Prairie Dog Hunt in Shields. It was a difficult day for hunting, being overcast and very windy, but still the hunters went out! It was a fun day followed by a meal and prizes.

Jackie Jochim and Kristi Deason have started a “Kids’ Skills Club”, think 4-H without the manure (at least for now). The group meets once a month, usually the 3rd Tuesday of the month at the Senior Center in Selfridge from 6:30-7:30. They do some educational activities and a hands-on activity. Last month they studied soils and then planted some seeds. This month they plan to do some lariat studies, followed by some rope art. In July they are planning a study of color followed by painting on canvas. This group is open to children from Kindergarten to 6th grade. If you are interested in learning more, or helping them out financially, contact Jackie Jochim or Kristi Deason. Keep an eye on Facebook for further updates.

The Selfridge

Assembly of God Church will have a busy week! On Wednesday, June 17, there will be the monthly food and clothing pantry at the Selfridge Church. This goes from 3:00-6:00. On Thursday, June 18 from 1:00-5:00, a group from Minot called Matthew 25 will be on hand at the Fort Yates Church at 221 2nd Ave. S in Fort Yates to give out clothing and some other items. Everyone is welcome at both events.

July 25 is Selfridge Family Fun Day. Some events are: Shields-Selfridge Sportsmen Club Egg Shoot, a 3-on-3 basketball tournament in the park, rummage sale, craft sale, Fire District meal with proceeds donated to David Kraft Jr., possibly a parade, games, and inflatables. It will be a fun day!

There was a small group of people who cleaned up the cemetery last Wednesday. The grass had really grown. Just a reminder that during the first mowing following the 4th of July, flowers and other items on the graves will be removed. They will not be put back on. If you want those items on your loved one’s grave, please make arrangements to maintain that gravesite yourself. Or if there are items you want, make sure to come and get them before the 4th of July. It is a lot of work for our volunteers to lift those items and replace them.

Happy birthday to Bergetta Ternes, Debbie Vollmuth, Mike F. Volk, Lorna Bear Heart, George Schaeffer, Matthew Volk, and Randy Hahne.

Happy Anniversary to David and Kas Kraft.

Riehl Point of View

Gina Riehl

Summertime, summertime, oh what a busy time. It’s hard to cram in all the events and activities into just a few months. Last weekend was full. On Saturday was the St. Gertrude’s annual all class reunion honoring the 50th class reunion of 1976. I believe there was about 7 in attendance and 3 from the 40th class of 1986. Lots of other classes came too. Time to put it on your calendar for next years reunion. There was also the Benefit Breakfast for Don Lawson on Sunday. There was a wonderful turnout. Donations can also be made at through the Capital Credit Union in Mandan to the Don Lawson account. We were off to Minot for a little drag racing for the weekend. The first races were rained out or “winded” out, so first one for Bill this year. No big wins but lots of enjoyment.

Happy Father’s Day this Sunday to all the dads out there.

Happy birthday to Bonnie Frederick, Heather Fleck, Colleen Volk and Kari Schaff. Happy birthday to Bill

Riehl, my knight in shining armor!(these days it may have an itty bitty bit of grease smudge on it) Happy anniversary to Andy & Jessica Deichert, Brandi & Jaden Maier and Preston & Stacey LaDuke.
