Richard Lanning

Richard Springen Lanning, known as Dick, passed away on Jan. 22, 2026, in Tucson, Ariz. For the days leading up to his passing, he was surrounded by his family who provided him support and care during this transition.

His family and friends miss him dearly, but they also rejoice that he did not have to suffer through a long and arduous decline.

Dick is survived by his close family that includes: his wife, Candace Walters; sons, Matt and Rory; daughter-in-law, Lindsay; and grandchildren, Lyla and Ryder. He was proceeded in death by his parents, Lyle and Erma Lanning, Aunt, Irene Wyland, and Uncles, Ray and Allan Springen.

He was born on Nov. 12, 1940, in Hannibal, Mo., and spent considerable time in Mayville, N.D., and Minneapolis, Minn.

He committed to his country as a Naval Aviation Officer and flew in the Vietnam War. He loved the mountains and communities in Aspen and Telluride, Colo., where he raised his sons and worked as a ski instructor, shop owner and coach. In his later years in Tucson, he managed his wife's top-notch orthodontics business and real estate investments.

Eventually, Dick retired and focused is energy supporting local community associations, traveling with his wife and visiting with family. He never stopped thinking about improving the community and supporting his family.

Dick remained strong through all the years and enjoyed many activities to keep him busy like skiing, tennis, biking, golf, boating, motorcycling, car projects, and home renovation.

His mind was always clear, and he kept a positive attitude until the very end. Family and friends will remember him for his energetic approach, positive attitude, and support for family and community.

He will be missed and hope that each of you can take some powder turns or cruise the open road for him.

Glen Thompson

Glen Ordell Thompson, 92, of Crookston, Minn., passed away on Jan. 29, 2026, at the Benedictine Living Community in Crookston.

Glen was born on June 17, 1933, in Caledonia, North Dakota to Engebret and Alma (Overgsten) Thompson. He attended the Caledonia Consolidated School where he graduated with the class of 1951. After graduating from school, Glen worked with his brother moving buildings. In 1954, he enlisted in the United States Army and served a tour of duty in South Korea. In 1956, after being honorably discharged from the Army, he returned to North Dakota where he would spend the next 15 years operating heavy machinery working road construction. On May 2, 1959, Glen married Lois Helen Opdahl at Trinity Lutheran Church in Crookston, and they lived in Caledonia until 1966. In 1966, they moved to Buxton, North Dakota where Glen spent 3 years driving school bus and doing maintenance for Buxton School. In 1969, Glen and Lois moved to Crookston, and he began a 27-year career at the University of Minnesota Crookston as an auto mechanic. In 1996, Glen retired from the University and enjoy a long retirement.

Glen was a good and kind man. He was a pillar of quiet strength who lived his life with a consistent set of values. He had a strong work ethic, took pride in his work, and enjoyed staying active. Before and after retirement, he enjoyed visiting with Thompson and Opdahl family members, making improvements to his house, meticulously tending to his lawn, flowers, and garden, operating a small garden rototilling business, learning to play the guitar in his 50s and forming a band with four friends from work to play country and polka music at small dances in the area, and helping his neighbors when needed. He was a loving husband of 66 years, giving and supportive father of three, and beloved grandfather/great grandfather to six. His loving legacy will continue to live within the family and friends that were part of his life.

Glen is survived by his wife, Lois; children, Kimberley (Bryan) Seaton, Karen Langer, and Kevin Thompson, all of Crookston; grandchildren, Amy (Chris) Johnston, Ashley (finance Wyatt Remmick) Langer; great-grandchildren, Colten and Cayden Johnston, and Brooklyn and Beau Remmick; brother, Arvid Thompson; brother-in-law, Alan Sandberg; and sisters-in-law, Janis Thompson and Wanda Wilkens.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Engebret and Alma Thompson; brothers, Orville, Duane, Wallace, Edwin, Elmer; sister, Muriel (Baukol); son-in-law Gary Langer; brothers-in-law and sisters-in-laws; and many other beloved family members.

Glen's family will celebrate his life with a funeral service held on Saturday Feb. 7, 2026 at 2 p.m. at Stenshoel-Houske Funeral Home. Visitation will begin at 1 p.m., with family visitation at 12 p.m.. A social at Irishman's Shanty (backroom) will be from 3 to 5 p.m. and is open to all of Glen's family and friends.

Graveside service will take place at a later date at the Oakdale Cemetery in Crookston.
