Five senior leaders and captains; Kendra Differding, Emerson Schultz, Ella Tuhy, Kyra Haecherl, and Kaia Sweet strategize with Coach Barb Sweet during a timeout.

The Broncos have hit a rough spot recently. It got a bit rougher when they met Northern Cass on Jan 25, after their seventh straight loss.

Northern Cass rolled to a 66-37 win. Kyra Haecherl had a strong night for the Lady Broncos. She scored seven points, along with eight rebounds and four steals.

Lisbon struggled to get the ball back on offense and finished the game with only four offensive rebounds.

Lisbon's defeat was their fourth straight on the road, which dropped their record down to 3-11.

Lisbon's Broncos will head out to face Oak Grove Lutheran on January 25th. Oak Grove Lutheran has now lost 11 straight, and the team is hunting for their first win since December 14.

Broncos capture 8th consecutive Storhaug title

In 2008 with the closing of the KQLX tournament in Lisbon, the Broncos were looking for a new sponsor of their annual tournament.

Thankfully, Hall of Fame Bronco coach and teacher, Nick Storhaug stepped up to the plate and began sponsoring one of the most well-run tournaments in the state. In it's third era (The FFA tournament and the KQLX to prelude), the Storhaug Tournament annually brings close to 400 wrestlers into the gymnasium from across the tri-state area.

One of the most important reasons for the tournament's success over the years is the great support from the wrestling fans in our community. The Sea of Red is second to none as a fan base, and man can they host a tournament!

I'd like to give thanks to the Lisbon wrestling club, parents, and so many who came out in support and helped put the tournament together.

A special thanks needs to be given to the amazing table workers including Jason Dick, Clair Miller, Mike Hegle, Tim Mairs, Scott Benteen, Nick Shockman, Gary Mairs, Rick Mairs, Matt Lyons, Gabe Lyons, Doug Kempel, Josh Wentz, and Shad Thorfinson.

The blood boys also helped keep the tournament rolling with the help of Ritchie Mairs, Robbie Mairs, Paul Nelson, and Jon Carter. Jarrett Carter, tournament manager, also went above and beyond to keep everything running on time and on track. We just couldn't host a tournament of this size without the help of the community.

With such great support, coaches McCleary, Sours, Dick, Anderson, and myself could concentrate on the wrestling, and the wrestlers took care of the rest. The Broncos would place 15 wrestlers in the 13 weight classes, showing the depth of the junior varsity as well as the strength of the varsity boys. The top five team scores on the weekend were:

1. Lisbon	257.5
2. Bismarck St. Mary	218

3. EEK	161
4. Carrington	148.5
5. Border West	123

The Broncos had many individual standout performances, crowning four individual champions (Kashden Wadeson (127), Blaze Reinke (152), Eli Lyons (160), and Mike Nelson (172). Twenty wrestlers won at least one match over the course of the tournament. Eli Lyons would be named outstanding wrestler from the 160-285 pound weight classes after an exciting pin in the finals. Individual placers for the Broncos were:

107- Ian Anderson (6th)	161
114- Cruz Reinke (2nd)	148.5
121- Greyson Lyons (4th)	123
127- Kash Wadeson (1st)
133- Ryan Enge (2nd) Noah Anderson (3rd)
139- Griffin Greenley (6th)
145- Jordan Dick (5th) Amos Ramerman (7th)
152- Blaze Reinke (1st) Riley Lacina (7th)
160- Eli Lyons (1st)
172- Mike Nelson (1st)
215- Drew Anderson (4th)
285- Aiden Hinkle (3rd)

Broncos top Loboes and Thunder in triangular

Richard Lacina
info@rcgazette.com

On Thursday night, Jan 18, the Lisbon Broncos ended their regular season dual schedule with a triangular against the LaMoure Loboes and the Edgely/Ellendale/Kulm Thunder. The two victories put the Broncos at the 7-0 mark in the region, and the 14-3 mark on the season. The Broncos will be the #1 seed in the Region 1 dual tournament to be held in Lisbon on February 3rd.

The boys in Red and Gold wrestled well on Thursday to earn two more dual wins.

Standing out on the night was senior, Jordan Dick. Jordan went 2-0 on the night, with two pins. The entire team was really clicking, and bonus points were the theme with fourteen of the Broncos' wins coming by major decision or better to rack up the team points. Individual dual results were:
