Flasher vs.
Belfield

54-37

The Flasher Bulldogs started their week off with a game against the Belfield Bantams, where they finished with a 17-point lead.

“I was very excited to see us start off the game strong,” head coach Brian Nieuwsma said, “it was something we’ve struggled with in past games. It was good to build that kind of lead.”

The Bulldogs started off the first quarter hitting the net ten times for a total of 21 points. Pine Fleck was the top scorer for the first quarter with seven points. Grant Hauge followed with six.

The Bulldogs offense was outstanding in the first quarter; however, their defense allowed the Bulldogs to create 12 points of distance between themselves and the Bantams (21-9).

The second quarter was a bit slower for the Bulldogs however, they still managed to increase their lead to 14 points.

The first half finished with the Bulldogs leading 31-14.

After halftime, the Bulldogs lead crumbled a little bit as it went back down to 11 points. The Bulldogs did manage to score another 12 points in the third quarter with Grant Hauge and Javin Friesz scoring six points each.

“We definitely need to work on delivering that total knock out in those last quarters,” Nieuwsma continued. The third quarter finished with the Bulldogs in the lead 43-22.

The Bulldog’s defense was a bit slower in the fourth quarter as the Bantams scored 15 points.

However, Flasher’s offense kept strong and finished the game 54-37.
