DAKOTA RUSH HOUR
Barb Kraft

Greetings and Happy New Year!

He needs a helmet, I was telling my my son-in law, Jon, as my grandson River was skiing. River is young (seven) athletic fast and wondering when he can ride the chairlift by himself. He is learning the etiquette of skiing, so when there are people, such as his grandma Barb, that can't ski quite so fast to be aware and give a wide berth, avoiding the risk of an accident.

Traveling north this nice winter day gave Jon, River, Tom and I the opportunity to spend time together while honing our physical fitness abilities.

Jon was unable to attend the wrestling meet in Gillette, WY with Tisa and Blu, as you livestock people know, someone had to stay home and take care of them.

A few days later we saw grandson Blu up skiing with some of his friends. Blu reported back to his mom, Tisa, grandma was the last person off of the T-Bar. Here I come across looking like a hero.

This is the beauty of Bottineau, with the ease and convenience of the two bunny hills and nursery slope with my lack of natural aptitude for skiing, I consequently need all of the help I can get. Going on 66 years of age my daily life now has the added job of monitoring my heart, building bone strength, and trying to prevent dementia. Skiing offers me the ability to combat all three.

This New Year's Day I was thinking back to the New Year Day of 50 years ago. My family was snowmobiling with the Berthold Snowmobile Club at Arnold Berg's southwest of Berthold.

I had stayed home and at this point was in my high school years and always planning my future. I wasn't going to make fun from and live in the cold. I was going to move south or west to California and bask in a warmer climate.

I was looking at the snowmobile tracks as we were driving into the Bottineau Winter Park and remembering my parents came up here snowmobiling with the Berthold Snowmobile Club.

My parents were enthusiastic and determined people, they worked hard and they took advantage and saw the positive in the cold and enjoyed snowmobiling at the Bottineau Winter Park, 'you got it' with the Berthold Snowmobile Club.

When I was married and had my own family, my parents would operate the cafe on Sundays so that Tom and I could bring our children, Tisa and TJ, to the winter park to ski.

Well in my high school years I dreamt of south. In my retirement years, I am dreaming of going north, going north to ski.

Grain Market

Berthold Farmers Elevator's Grain Merchandiser, Morgan Hall, reports: Welcome to 2025! A few stats from the year:

Canola cash price low was set November 27th at $15.88, high was May 13th at $20.76.

Wheat price low was $4.46 on August 26th, high was May 28th at $6.92.

Soybeans low was $8.37 on August 16th, high was $11.82 January 3rd.

Corn low was August 26th at $2.82, high was $4.02 May 13th.

Notice the pattern of highs at planting and lows at harvest? Lots of global uncertainty will carry into 2025. Wheat will be watching balance sheets and how cheap Russia continues to sell their wheat. Soybeans and Canola will follow the direction 45Z biofuels dictates as well as south American weather. Durum and canola will be affected from the north if a 25% tariff comes on with the new administration.

We will be hosting grower meetings in February that will cover what's going on in the markets, as well as information on basis contracts and hedge to arrive contracts, and just as important how to use them. Check out our Facebook page for when these will be happening! We are thankful for what 2024 brought us and are here to serve you in 2025!

Healthy Living! This New Year of 2025, whatever activity (mental or physical, keep active and push yourself.

Thank You! To my parents, LeRoy and Merle Kalenze, for instilling the zest to live and enjoy life, to see the positive activities in the cold weather.

Long live parents, grandparents, children, snowmobilers and snow skiers!

Sincerely, Barb
