Golden Valley Manor News

Dec. 8 - Devotions were held in the chapel Monday evening with Pastor Lucido. Then the residents played bingo with the Lions Club. Troy was the bingo caller. Paul and Sage helped with the games. Carol was the lucky blackout winner. Pumpkins bars were served with coffee after the games.

Dec. 9 - Tuesday morning started with exercises. In the afternoon, we celebrated our December birthdays with a party. Delores and Michele both have birthdays this month. We played card bingo and then enjoyed cake. Carrie made a red velvet layered cake with milk chocolate buttercream and marshmallow Swiss meringue. It was to die for!

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting for Golva Repair will be held Mon., January 7, 2026 in the Golva Bar meeting room. Supper is at 6 p.m., followed by the meeting.

Dec. 10 - The community van took our shoppers downtown Wednesday morning. In the afternoon, bingo was played with St. John's Catholic Church. Our hosts were Janet, Rosemary and Yvette. Karen and Lois were the lucky blackout winners. A delicious pecan dessert was served with whipped cream. John D. was the baker in charge of this task and the residents enjoyed the warm, just-out-of-the-oven dessert.

Dec. 11 - Mass was celebrated Thursday morning in the chapel. Carol did the readings for us. Exercises with Mary followed the Mass. In the afternoon, we had "Fun with Foods." We made homemade cocoa in the Crockpot and made puff corn covered with two kinds of almond bark. A word search puzzle in the "Yummy Hot Chocolate" theme was tackled while the residents enjoyed their afternoon treats.

Dec. 12 - Friday is Hair Day. Our Wibaux girls, Mary and Judy were our hair lady volunteers. Today was the last day of our "12 Days of Christmas" annual auction. We had lots of bidding wars and lots of participants taking part in this fundraiser. Our thanks to you all.

Dec. 13 - Reading Hour

with Jo was held after the noon meal. Jo shared her ever-popular doughnuts with her listeners. These doughnuts were on the auction, and they sure are a highly sought-after item. At 2 p.m., the Praise and Worship Band came and gave us an afternoon of Christmas music. They had Jill on the piano, Sarah and Nichole playing the violins, Jones on the piccolo, Jared on the box drum, Steve, Seth and Mark on the guitars, and lots of singers young and old helping to make a beautiful sound. Mila and Russel also performed with the group one of their favorite songs, "Jesus is Alive." It was a very enjoyable afternoon, and we appreciate Steve lining this up and bringing all our beloved Christmas carols to our home.

Dec. 14 - The noon meal served was meatballs and mashed potatoes. These Sunday meals are so delicious on a cold wintery day. The residents are so lucky not to have to go out to eat and get warm delicious meals just as good as a 5-star restaurant.

We are getting close to Christmas. Our calendar has lots of fun holiday activities to enjoy right up to the New Year. Have a wonderful week everyone!
