Carson News Lois Stewart

Last week...

The Birthstone for January is the Garnet and the Flower is the Carnation.

Happy New Year every one! After a few days of not feeling the best, I've recovered in time to enjoy the holidays with family and friends. Beverly Sauter called me to thank me for remembering her birthday. She was so faithful in attending Carson Sr. Meals most every day. And we miss her very much. But Father Time has a way of slowing us down. Wishing her the best for the New Year.

My son Darryl and Kathy Stewart, Bismarck, came Christmas Eve Day for a long afternoon visit. We had such a good time. Then my son Dan Stewart was here after church Wednesday for a great visit. Grand daughter Brandi Maier and baby Joey came for a lovely visit the next Tuesday afternoon, and on Christmas Day Bailey, Tayla, Bellamy, Wrenley, and Tinsley Stewart visited Christmas Day and also Christain, Julian, and Trinity Stewart came for the afternoon.

The biggest surprise was when my daughter Angel Stewart Wilson, Michigan, called and said she would be coming Saturday evening. Dan and Jackie brought her from the airport in Bismarck.

We had dinner at Patsy Hertz' home after church Sunday with other family and friends. It was also Bailey's birthday. I have been truly blessed this Holiday season.

My all-black companion kitty, Desi, has really enjoyed the extra attention from these visitors. and loves cuddling up to Angel who is also an animal lover.

Happy birthday to my grandson Bailey Stewart, Paul Hartman, Harold Bruning, Todd Miller.

Don't Forget to Pray For our Nation, Ukraine, Israel. Best wishes to all in the coming New Year. Lois Stewart.

This week...

Our sympathy to the family and friends of Katherine Annie Hoog who died recently at the Elgin Jacobson Hospital. May she rest in peace and her memory be a blessing.

I was blessed with my daughter Angel Stewart Wilson's visit during Christmas week. She is from Michigan and distance makes the heart grow fonder. We went to church together, Sr. Meals, downtown, and the usual drive around town where she grew up. Things change from days gone by. Anyway it made my holidays very special. Desi, my all-black companion kitty, loved having Angel here. She is an animal lover too. And they cuddled and purred a lot. She cut his nails and he just lets her do it. No biting and blood letting like when I try. When Angel was here my neighbor Mayvonne Miller brought us some of her vanilla ice cream made with mostly milk. Delicious! Something new to me. Thanks!

Last Sunday Preston, Renee, Christain, Julian, Trinity, and Kiari Stewart came by after church. I love their visits. Christain was driving a really red pick-up. I'm going to bum a ride!

I hate to take down and put away all the holiday decor. But the live evergreen cross from Dan will stay up until Easter. I do that every year.

Happy birthday to Amanda Dahners, Michael Schmid, John Hanson. Sheryl Matthews said, "If you have the chance to make people happy just do it. Sometimes people are struggling silently. Maybe, your act of kindness can make their day."

Don't forget to Pray for our Nation, Ukraine, Israel. till next time, Lois Stewart.

Selfridge News Debbie Vollmuth

Selfridge lost a pillar of the community this week. Ann Kraft passed away. She will be missed by so many. She touched so many lives with her cooking at the Senior Center, helping out at the school, being present at everything that went on in town, and just being a wonderful person. Sympathy is extended to her family and friends. Services for Ann were on Monday, January 6, 2025 in Selfridge.

Sunday, Vic and Kathy Kraft's dinner guest was Mike Ramella, Selfridge.

Willy and Lenore Mosset went to the wake service for Ann Kraft Sunday evening. They had spent a quiet New Year's Eve at home and making phone calls to family.

Nick and Debbie Vollmuth celebrated New Year's Eve with friends in Mesa. They played games, exchanged goofy gifts and had lots of food.

More places have reported being broken into over the holidays. It is so sad that nothing ever gets done about this. Our county sheriff doesn't come over to even check things out. Hopefully, people will stop buying what they know are stolen goods so there is no benefit to the theft. The Selfridge Rural Fire District is pursuing all legal avenues to help get the offenders.

Happy birthday to Melinda Landeis and Panna Gayton.

If you have news or events, birthdays or anniversaries for the Selfridge News, please contact Debbie Vollmuth at 701-471-1027 (text or call) or debbiev@westriv.com

Let's make 2025 the year to THRIVE, not just survive!

Shields News Arlene Bahm
