

Riehl Point of View Gina Riehl

What a fun weekend we had with Watson here last week! He didn't have any issues and was such a little trooper when he had to sit through a couple of grown up meetings. We made sure to visit local businesses and enjoy some pizza, hot dogs and delicious donuts. We had hoped for a warmer week but we enjoyed playing games and baking. He even came to the monthly day of prayer. Saturday we went to Jamestown for the older boys Spring Concert. My house will be a wee bit quieter this week. Next month will be The National Day of Prayer on May 1st. I will be putting a schedule in soon. We plan to start in New Leipzig this year then we spend 30 minutes at each town along hiway 21 including Raleigh. Watch for your time and town. Come out as a community and pray together. It's so awesome to see people of different denominations praying together.

Flasher had a beautiful evening for prom last Saturday.

Flasher will have a blood drive on Monday, April 14th

Happy birthday to Eli Nieuswma, Carol Vandenburg, and Oscar Miller.

"But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us."
