Riehl Point of View Gina Riehl

It's hard to believe we are already halfway through July! So many things to do and not near enough summer to do it in. In North Dakota, it's like trying to cram 6 months of summer activities into about 2 months. I wish the warmer temps lasted longer than the cooler, but it's all good. We had perfect temps for watching Canaan play in a 9U baseball tournament this weekend in Bismarck. They played awesome and even won the tournament. He received a most valuable player in one of the games he was pitching in. Those boys play hard that is for sure.

Raleigh Rodeo had a round robin saddle roping on Saturday. It looked like there were lots of participants. They will have the 38th Annual Raleigh Youth Rodeo on July 26th, beginning at 11am CT. Entries must be in by July 18th. We also saw a bit of the St. Anthony tractor trek as we headed up for the Saturday games. So, I think everyone was quite busy enjoying the sunshine without any storms. This
