HOROSCOPE | EUGENIA LAST

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Channel your energy to finish what you start instead of taking on something new. It's time to get rid of what you no longer need, and clear a path for a bright future. Reflect on what brings you joy and the path that leads to a peaceful mind. It's up to you to make things happen. 5 stars

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Choose your course of action wisely. Set your sights on what you want to accomplish and what's possible, and use common sense to ensure you don't take on more than you can handle. Your energy needs guidance to help you evolve. Look around you, evaluate your lifestyle and living space, and adjust only what's necessary. 2 stars

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Traveling, changing up your routine and discovering something new and exciting will broaden your scope regarding the possibilities. Stick to the basics and go with what flows naturally, and you will make the most of your day. Refuse to let others talk you into doing something questionable. Say no to temptation, indulgent behavior and overspending. 4 stars

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Avoid costly encounters that can jeopardize your chance to advance. Handle work relationships carefully. An honest and open approach will help you maintain your status quo. AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Consider options, get your papers in order and discuss your plans with those who share common ground. LIBRARY

Library Director Ian Anguiano previously confirmed to The Dickinson Press that expansion plans were developed in coordination with the State Historic Preservation Office and the building's historic status would not be affected.

Marc Mellmer, head of J.E. Dunn's Dickinson office, spoke at the ceremony and acknowledged the library's historic significance, saying he felt honored to work on such a building.

"We've had the unique opportunity to construct brand new buildings all over the community," he said. "We like to say that that's part of creating history. So, it's really special to us when we get the opportunity to preserve history on projects like this."

Construction began in September and is expected to be completed in July 2026.

More information on the library's expansion and its historic status can be found on its website or in prior coverage in The Dickinson Press.
