stalling a new linoleum tile floor. The business recently obtained a new 1950 truck for use in delivery work and electrical jobs.

The Iris Theatre has completely remodeled the with knotty pine walls and plastic leatherette was also used. A new and modern office box has been installed. The floor of the lobby has a new tile floor. In the auditorium the walls have been covered with new cushioned acoustic material. Paul Burgess, owner and operator of the theater, says this will give his entertainment place the best possible sound frequency. One hundred and thirty-two American, cushioned seats and mohair back have been obtained and will be installed in the near future.

Duke and Duchess of Windsor Pass Through Velva

On a special car of the Soo Line

train No. 3 was the Duke and Duchess of Windsor who passed through Velva last Monday. They were on their way to their ranch in Alberta, Canada. He was formerly King of England. This is the Royal couple's third trip through this part of the country. They were here nine years ago. The Duke remembering the stop perfectly, saying to his wife, "They have some good duck and geese hunting around here." During their brief stop in Minot, which was spent on the observation platform, they autographed with the Royal crest for the spectators.

Directors of Verendrye Electric Co-op Vote to Establish Phone Service

James A. Morley, manager of the Verendrye Electric Cooperative, this week announced that the board of directors of that group has voted to incorporate a telephone cooperative. The telephone system would cover the entire area which is not being served by the REA cooperative. Mr. Morley went on to say that the personnel of the Verendrye Electric Cooperative will be engaged to construct and maintain the lines for the telephone cooperative.

Letters to the Editor Policy

The Velva Area Voice welcomes and encourages letters to the editor. However, editing privileges are reserved on any items submitted. Items will be edited for length as space allows. Grammar and spelling corrections will be made and rewriting may take place. Libelous material is never allowed. Letters containing information which could be construed as libel will not be printed. Letters to the editor are reserved for individual comment on a subject of local interest and should follow these guidelines: • Letters should not be more than 250 words in length. The shorter the letter, the more likely it will be read. • Letters must include full name and town. • The Velva Area Voice will not honor requests to withhold names. We will not publish anonymous/unsigned letters.
