City of Regent proceedings

City of Regent
October 12, 2026
Regular Meeting, 7:00 PM

Lyle Hoffer called meeting to order. Council members Tristan Florey, Morgan Kouba, Terry Hartman, and Scott Schenck were present. Bob Carlson, Jess Kouba, Sherrif Warner, Jeremy Meis from Crow River, and Regent City Auditor, Karen Kouba also present.

Florey moved to accept the Agenda and Minutes, seconded by Hartman, motion carried.

Jeremy Meis updated council on the main street project. They plan to be here November 2, to lay asphalt and lights will be here in January. Florey moved to purchase a 18" culvert from Crow River, seconded by Hartman, motion carried. Discussion was held on Jess Kouba's shop parking area, Hartman moved to put gravel and not grass, seconded by Florey, motion carried.

Discussion was held to add to ordinances 1:NO snow removal on streets unless it's a city employee or a licensed business.2: Any services put in must be done by a business that is bonded.

Sherriff report: Sherrif Warner reported 14 calls and stated that it's been pretty quiet.

Bob Carlson requested funds to do the roof on the Austin building. They have an estimate of $60,000.00. Regent Development has donated $30,000.00. Kouba moved to grant the Museum $8,000.00 for the project, seconded by Schenk, motion carried.

Scott gave his report for the month. River water was back on and then disconnected. Scott is waiting for some hot asphalt for the street by Binstocks shop. Its to big of an area to do with cold mix.

Kouba moved to approve the financial report and pay the following bills, seconded by Florey, motion carried

Bills paid: Scott Schenck, $2183.80, $2423.87; Karen Kouba, $2024.30; Intuit, $479.00, $671.76, $812.60; MDU, $1573.23; Consolidated Telcom, $128.31; SW Water, $3021.57; Regent Oil, $4.77; DFC, $489.35; USPS, $130.00; Black Mountain, $3576.83; SW District Health Unit, $30.00; Pump Systems, $4577.31; Hanson Plumbing, $771.50; Kilzer Financial, $196.80; ND One Call, $6.30; Crow River, $740.00; Brosz Engineering, $150,362.50.

Meeting Adjourned
Mayor-Lyle Hoffer
Auditor-Karen Kouba

Published Nov. 19, 2026