NDHSAA STATE CLASS B BASEBALL RESULTS
On MAY 28th through May 30th, the LaMoure Litchville Marion Edgeley Loboes competed in the 2026 State Class B Baseball Tournament at Jack Brown Stadium in Jamestown, ND.

On Thursday May 28th, the Loboes lost to the Velva Drake Aggies with the scores of 6-10.

On Friday May 29th, the Loboes lost to the Des Lacs Burlington Lakers with the scores of 4-7.

On Saturday May 30th, the Loboes won against the Bottineau Braves with the final scores of 10-0.

The Loboes got 7th place in the 2026 NDHSAA State Class B Baseball Tournament.

Congratulations on getting 7th place in the state baseball tournament, Loboes!

BOYS GOLF RESULTS

On Tuesday May 26th and Wednesday May 27th, the Rebels boys golf team had a super regional tournament at Jamestown and Nolan Galbreath qualified for state golf meet.

Congratulations on advancing to the state golf tournament, and good luck in state at Carrington, Nolan!

Great job to everyone who competed in the 2025-26 high school sporting events!

Have a great summer, everyone!
Sincerely Justin Allan Terjesen

What's Happening in Kulm

A Women's Ministries and Salad Luncheon will be held at the Kulm Baptist Church on Saturday, June 13th, at 11:00 AM. Guest Speaker will be Sherry Bayne.

Stay Tuned for notifications of Kulm events in What's Happening in Kulm, in the LaMoure County Chronicle. "Thanks for reading!"

UPCOMING BLOOD DRIVES

As school lets out and schedules change for the summer months, blood donations dip, but patients don't stop needing transfusions during what many doctors refer to as "trauma season." Vitalant urges all eligible donors to help keep the supply stable in June.

Every Vitalant donor who uses code JUNEGIFT-2026-V when scheduling an appointment will get a $15 Donor Rewards gift card when they donate in June*.

Most people are eligible to donate blood. Learn more and make an appointment to give at vitalant.org, download and use the Vitalant blood donor app or call 877-25-VITAL (877-258-4825).
