Hatzzenbihler moved to approve the finan- cial report for December, seconded by Gusewelle, all voting aye, motion carried. Personal Appearance Chad Hoffman appeared on behalf of the Center Park Board to discuss the idea of the Park Board taking on the responsibility of the Fit-4-Life gym located in the basement of the Civic Center. The City Council dis- cussed and expressed agreement with the idea and noting the potential opportunities it could create for the Park Board. The Park Board would need to have the City Attor- ney review the existing lease agreement and address any legal questions related to transferring the gym from the Fit-4-Life

Board to the Park Board with the City's approval. CB Accounting Report- CB accounting was absent. Sheriff's Department Report- Sheriff Hil- liard provided December's call of services. Hilliard also discussed, at the Council's request, the possibility of the County pur- chasing scales. He further discussed the potential of hiring a fifth deputy. Publics Works Maintenance Report- Re- uther wanted to publicly and personally thank Burt Isaak for volunteering and helping to put up and take down of the city Christmas lights. Reuther updated the Council that the new boilers are running; however, additional work and repairs are still required for them to operate at 100%. Reuther also noted that the company is working to extend the warranty on the new boilers from one year to five years. Reuther updated the council that there is still one water meter that needs to be replaced. The replacement will need to wait until spring and may require additional assistance due to the meter's location. Reuther informed the council that the John Deer Loader had issues losing fuel two weeks ago and was able to repair it, but he wanted to share this information for future reference. Pool Manager Report- Auditor Simenson suggested reimbursing the pool manager's phone on a quarterly basis, as much of the pool's business is conducted through her personal phone. Gusewelle motioned the pool manager to receive $120 quarterly the same as our oth- er city supervisors received, seconded by Hatzzenbihler, all voting aye, motion carried. Kraft informed the council of water damage to the girls' locker room ceiling, possibly caused by a pipe leak. The ceiling contains asbestos, and a 3-foot section will need to be removed and repaired. She presented two options, hiring the repair at an estimat- ed cost of $2,500, or sending an employee to a 16-hour asbestos training course so the repair could be done in-house, depending on the cost. Kraft informed the council that there is a new lifeguard interested in working at the pool. The council expressed that all candi- dates for any position must complete the city's employment process.

Old Business Casson addressed the council on behalf of two residents regarding concerns about curb stops not being repaired at this time. Gusewelle reassured them that the curb stops will be repaired once the winter months have passed. Hatzzenbihler motioned to approve the bid for Olson's Carpet and Furniture in the amount of $816 to get the gym finished and looking respectful, seconded by Casson, all voting aye, motion carried. Auditor Simenson provided the council with information regarding the 2025 hay lease payment. Hatzzenbihler motioned to hire Caden Dauphinais for Golf Course Superinten- dent, seconded by Gusewelle, two voting aye, one voting no, motion carried. New Business Mayor Lee and Hatzzenbihler discussed they will be setting a date for employee evaluations and to discuss employee raise negotiations. Hatzzenbihler and Auditor Simenson updat- ed the council on the balances of the MIDA bond for the Hazel Miner Condos ($15,000) and the loan for the Hazel Miner Addition ($195,000). The $7,500 hookup fees were also discussed. Auditor Simenson informed the council that the City of Center is part of the National Flood Insurance Program and that the state requires the city to adopt an ordinance to stay compliant by June 1, 2026. The first reading of the ordinance will be at the next city council meeting. Portfolios Hatzzenbihler informed the council he con- tacted the state and discussed with them about installing new crosswalk signs and new slowdown ahead signs at the bridge and by the post office at no cost to the city. Hatzzenbihler motioned to accept the offer through the state to change the crosswalk and pedestrian ahead signs, seconded by Gusewelle, all voting aye, motion carried. Casson requested the hiring board to redo Kraft's job description and be specific about her duties. Next Meeting date: 6 p.m. Monday Feb- ruary 2nd 2026. Mayor Lee adjourned meeting at 8:10 p.m. John Lee, Mayor RaShell Simenson, City Auditor (01-22-2026)
