 Schepp is the highest rated gymnast from NLGA, and with good reason, according to NLGA coaches.

“As NLGA’s most advanced gymnast, Addison continues to set the standard for excellence within the program,” Lura said. “Her dedication, work ethic and success are paving the way for younger athletes as they progress through the levels and strive toward higher achievement.”

Next year will be Schepp’s last year competing with NLGA as she will be entering her last year of high school.

Lura said Dacar, 11, also of Beulah, holds NLGA’s current high-score record in the uneven bars with a 9.8.

“She’s an amazing athlete and a natural gymnast,” Lura said. “Her love for the sport is unmatched and will take her far.”

The following are the results of each of NLGA’s gymnasts at the state tournament:
