In Remembrance of our Fallen Soldiers

LEADER-NEWS | PHAIDRA YUNKER

Legionnaire Dwayne "Dewey" Oster reads the roll call of service dead during Washburn's Memorial Day program, a tradition honoring every name remembered by the community.

The Missing Man Table sits quietly near the stage at Washburn's Memorial Day program, each item — the rose, candle, glass and flag — representing service members who remain missing or held as prisoners of war.

The Washburn Elementary School Choir performs "Land of the Free Thanks to the Brave" during the community's Memorial Day program as families and veterans look on. Nearly 400 people filled the Memorial Building for the 143rd annual observance.

Legionnaire Jill Wiese reads the symbolism of each item during the POW/MIA Missing Man Table ceremony as Rick Richard stands nearby. The ritual honors service members who were prisoners of war or remain missing in action.
