placed third and became a state qualifier. The team included Jacoby Elmer, Uriyah Dakken, Xavier Torres and Jaxon Rolle. This relay team punched their collective ticket to state with a podium finish at regionals.

Personal Records and Proud Moments

Not every athlete’s journey ends at the state meet, but the Bearcats showed incredible growth across the board at regionals. The following athletes set personal records, representing the hard work and dedication that defines this program: Eli Foss — PR in the 1600M; Nora Bassoli - PRs in the 100M & 200M; Noelle Rosendahl - PRs in the 100M & Triple Jump; Alia Glasser - PR in the 400M; Kinsley Staiger - PRs in the 400M & 800M; Peyton Cotant - PR in the 800M; KiAnna Staiger - PR in the Long Jump; Girls 4x200 Relay - Team PR; Alia Glasser, Aleena Torres, KiAnna Staiger, Isla Staiger

One More Week as a Family

The results on paper are impressive, but they only tell part of the story.

Coach Hauser, who has poured years of love and dedication into this program, reflected on what this season has meant: “I cannot put into words the battles that they have overcome this season, some of them public, some private. They are warriors. We have always felt like a family and today the emotions were raw and real. The place where this was their other home and so many found their niche, felt like they belonged, know they are loved and cared for and will always have someone in their corner will not look the same next year, but know that will never change.” “Thank you to every athlete that has blessed our program. You helped make it what it is/was. Here is to one more week as a Bearcat Track and Field Family — let’s go out with a bang! Love all of you and so proud and lucky to be a part of this!”

The state qualifiers will carry the Bearcat name one final time onto the biggest stage in North Dakota prep track and field. They go not just for themselves, but for every teammate, every class, and every athlete who ever wore the Bearcat uniform.

Good luck at State, Bearcats. You’ve earned it.

Jaxon Rolle will compete in four events during the 2026 State Track Meet.

Afton Coots was a pole vault qualifier with a vault of 8’6”.

Thank You

A most heartfelt thank you to the Hebron Ambulance crew for their quick response and expertise when I needed you the most.

I will be forever grateful. Sincerely,
