

Burke Central first and second graders displayed their musical talents, playing kazoos during the annual Burke County Elementary Music Festival which was held last Wednesday, Feb. 25 at the Bowbells School.

Powers Lake

Powers Lake FFA chapter observed National FFA Week Feb. 21-27. They treated many community supporters to a variety of pies, ice cream and coffee, using the Powers Lake Senior Center for serving last Wednesday.

Richard and Jill Tinjum had cake and coffee with Linda Tinjum to celebrate her birthday last week.

The FFA Pie Day was a fun time to get together with friends. Jill and Richard Tinjum were in town to enjoy the treat, and got up to date on city happenings.

Monday, Mike Herman went to the Region 3 basketball tournament to watch his great niece, Aliza Pulvermacher of Crosby play.

Saturday, Wayne and Diana Jacobson, Anly Anderson and Eric, Henrik and Hazel Jacobson visited Janette Peterson and Pauline Jacobson. Henrik and Hazel came home with Grandma and Grandpa to Bowbells for the week.

Tuesday, Hazel Herman went to her great granddaughter, Lydia Haas' music program. She is the granddaughter of Tom and Vickie Herman.

Marnel Winzenburg picked up Ardelle McIntyre, and went to Daniel Winzenburg's to help him celebrate his birthday. Jazmin made pizza. Don, Doug and Cindy Winzenburg were also there to help Daniel celebrate.

Saturday and Sunday Melissa Hoheisel of Bismarck, Shelley Ellsworth and John Peterson brought dinner to eat with Janette Peterson while they visited.

Michelle, David and Eddie Redmer went to Hillsboro to help celebrate her mom, sister and nephews' February birthdays. They had a great time. Eddie drug Michelle through every snow drift in the yard to find her perfect spot.

Hazel Herman had a very nice phone call with Arlene Peterson of Stanley.

Kaden Schmit took Dee Haley and Lisa Haley to the basketball tournament in Plaza to watch Corbin and his team play. They won the last two games.

Craig Ellsworth visited Janette Peterson on Sunday.

Kellen Haley participated in the State Esport Chess Meet in Grand Forks. He traveled there with dad, Tim Schmit.

Friday Mike Herman went to Crosby to attend the retirement party for his sister, Anne Brodal as she has worked at the bank for 35 years. After the party, Anne's crew and Mike went out for supper to continue to celebrate her retirement.
