Help Wanted

WANTED: COMMUNITY JOURNALIST

Transcript Publishing seeks a full-time community-focused reporter to cover local news, feature stories and special assignments across Eddy and Foster counties in rural North Dakota. This role is ideal for a curious, adaptable journalist who enjoys building relationships within the community and contributing work for publication both in print and online.

This person will work closely with the editor to research, report and write accurate news, feature, sports and local government stories, as well as capture and record photos and videos to accompany stories and digital content. Will also edit and revise submitted content for grammar, style, accuracy and clarity.

Qualifications:

- Strong writing, interviewing, editing and storytelling skills
- Ability to manage multiple assignments and meet deadlines in a fast-paced newsroom environment
- Comfortable using digital publishing tools, social media platforms and basic office technology
- Ability to work both collaboratively and independently
- Valid driver's license, reliable transportation and willingness to travel as needed to cover stories in Eddy and Foster counties.

Salary is competitive and based on experience.

If writing and storytelling is your passion, explore this opportunity to do what you love while working with an award-winning team!

To apply, submit a short cover letter, resumé and three published writing samples by email to amyw@transcriptpublishing.com.
