About 30 community members gathered at the Beach Community Center to celebrate the 75th annual National Day of Prayer on May 7. The event was from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and was jam-packed with mini sermons, singing and, of course, prayer. As we approach America's 250th year of independence, the theme for this year reflects the need for prayer across the nation: 1st Chronicles 16:24 - "Glorify God among the nations - Seeking him in all generations." Several pastors and deacons from the surrounding churches; Pastor Ben Baker of Grace Church, Deacon Ron Zachmann from St. John the Baptist Catholic Church, Pastor Warren Maxted of United Community Church and Pastor Joe Hostetler of House of Prayer, came together to deliver encouraging messages for the crowd, emphasizing prayer and its role in our day-to-day lives. Lunch was sloppy joes with a choice of white or wheat buns, chips, a variety of cookies, brownies and other desserts. Water and coffee were also available. Serving the food were Cheryl Hammond and Linda Baker.

Becky Weinreis shared how she felt the event went. "I really felt the Holy Spirit was upon us," Weinreis said. "It was so encouraging to be with like-minded people who love the Lord Jesus Christ. All glory and honor to God."

GENE SKOGLUND AND HOWARD STOCKWELL providing music.

DEACON RON ZACHMANN sharing a message.

COMMUNITY MEMBERS enjoy visiting while eating the free meal.
