‘HAT TRICK’

•Winter has reminded us that it is far from over. If your child rides the bus to and from school or for extracurricular activities, please ensure they have a winter coat, along with a hat and gloves. Weather conditions can change quickly, and we want all of our students to be prepared and stay safe.

•We are three weeks into the new year and keeping New Year’s resolutions is less about making big, dramatic changes and more about committing to small, consistent steps that lead to lasting growth. The most successful resolutions are realistic, meaningful, and tied to daily habits that can be sustained over time. Progress won’t always be perfect, and setbacks are a natural part of the process—but persistence matters more than perfection. By staying focused on the “why” behind each goal, celebrating small victories, and giving ourselves grace when challenges arise, we turn resolutions into positive routines that can shape the year ahead.
