maintains the accounts payable and payroll records. The Auditor and Deputy Auditor maintain voter records, conduct the election training as provided by statute, and assist with all elections.

FUNCTIONS

The County Auditor has several primary functions performed by no other agency or department, including property tax levy calculations, county-wide elections, preparation of the county budget, financial management and record keeping. The secondary functions of the office include serving as Secretary to the Board of County Commissioners as well as other boards and commissions. The office also serves as a central management department, manages permits and service contracts with other entities. The Auditor carries out the directives of the Board of County Commissioners.

PROCEDURES

The procedures established for providing the governmental service are carried about daily by the Auditor and Deputy Auditors using an assortment of procedures established over the years. Routine office procedures are accomplished with the use of telephones, computers, calculators, copy machine, file cabinets and other essential office equipment as provided by the County. Training and education are provided through the Association of Counties and other entities to improve efficiency whenever possible.

THE PLAN

The Board of County Commissioners for Griggs County propose to combine and consolidate the offices of the Griggs County Treasurer and Griggs County Auditor into one office called the Griggs County Auditor/Treasurer, effective at the end of the current term of office, unless any officials affected by the combination or consolidation agree to an earlier combination. The plan would involve the following changes:

1. All the statutory duties of a County Treasurer will be assigned to the County Auditor.
2. The position formerly held by the Treasurer will be replaced by a full-time Deputy Treasurer.
3. Overall management and supervisory responsibility of the employees working to fulfill the duties of the Treasurer and Auditor will be assigned to the County Auditor.

4. The term of "Treasurer" shall be changed to coincide with that of the Auditor.

5. The position of County Auditor shall remain an elected position.

6. The citizens of Griggs County
