

Selfridge News Debbie Vollmuth

Feels like Spring is finally in the air, but so is the wind and the high fire danger. Please use common sense when driving or working outside. With dry conditions and strong winds any little fire can quickly escalate into a huge prairie fire.

The remodel at the Selfridge Senior Center is moving along nicely. The plan is to open the Center in June with lunches being served on Tuesday and Thursday, at least to start. It will be exciting to see the changes and have a meal there!

June 13 is the Shields/Selfridge Sportsmen Club Prairie Dog Extravaganza! It will be headquartered at the Shields Bar. The hunt ends at 4:00 and supper will be served at 5. The supper is open to the public. There are raffle tickets, t-shirts and caps available!

July 25 will be Selfridge Day. There is a lot being planned, so mark your calendars now to keep that day open and plan to attend! There will be a long range shoot, a parade, bouncy houses, meal, and possibly a rummage sale and artisan craft sale. This will be fun!

Alvin and Bella celebrated Mother's Day at Nicole and Brad Zechota's on Sunday.

Monte Becker and Ashlee Schaeffer at the FSA office hope that everyone had an enjoyable Mother's Day!

Bonnie Volk celebrated her birthday on Friday with Julia and Kristi Deason. They had a wonderful visit.

Nick and Debbie Vollmuth, Allen and JoAnn Blotske and Cindy and Clyde Graff went to the Band Day Parade in Bismarck. It was fun and so many talented bands! After the parade they all went to Nick and Debbie's for dessert and visiting. David Grunzke and Ambriella Zarr joined them.

Riehl Point of View Gina Riehl

Looks like we just might be ready for summer to begin. I am hoping the frost is over. My entryway is beginning to look like a garden with flowers and plants waiting to go outside.

We took Canaan and Zayden to the Michael W. Smith concert in Bismarck last Tuesday. It was a wonderful concert and saw lots of friends there. Then this weekend we enjoyed having all the grands and their parents together for a few days. Canaan had a baseball tournament in Mandan. He has really improved over the year. Then we celebrated Mother's Day with church, baseball games, the zoo, great good and some frozen yogurt to wrap it up. I am a very blessed momma. I am so thankful for my family.

School will be finishing up this week. Flasher high school graduation will be Sunday, May 17th at 2:30pm in the south gym. Congratulations graduates and their families.

Happy birthday to Wyatt Woodbury.
