

Fish Challenge Now Open

Anglers are invited to participate in the fifth annual North Dakota Fish Challenge. The challenges encourage exploration of North Dakota's many fisheries, and this year promote the joy of just catching a fish, no matter the size or species, with the newly added 100 Fish Challenge. To complete the challenge, just catch 100 fish of any kind.

In addition, anglers can complete the Total Catch Challenge by coaching a new angler, cleaning up a local waterbody, cooking a catch, and casting a story; the Rough Fish

Challenge by catching a bullhead, carp and sucker; the Sportfish Challenge, by catching a bluegill, walleye, bass and trout; or the inaugural Classic Challenge, requiring a northern pike, yellow perch, smallmouth bass and channel catfish.

Either way, the process is simple – snap a photo of each and submit your entry on the North Dakota Game and Fish website now through Aug. 15.

Anglers who complete a challenge will receive a decal and certificate.

Pan-Roasted Fish Fillets With Herb Butter

Ingredients

- 2 6-ounce fish fillets, like black bass, haddock, fluke, striped bass, tilefish, snapper or salmon, 1/2- to 1-inch thick
- Salt and ground black pepper
- 3 tablespoons grapeseed or canola oil
- 2 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 2 sprigs fresh thyme, tarragon, chives or another herb
- 1 tablespoon chopped flat-leaf parsley, optional
- Lemon wedges

Directions

Step 1. Pat fillets dry with a paper towel. Season on both sides with salt and pepper.

Step 2. Heat a heavy 10-inch non-stick or cast-iron skillet over high heat. When the pan is hot, add the oil. Place the fillets in the pan, skin side down (if applicable), laying them down away from your body. If fillets have skin, press down gently with a spatula for about 20 seconds to prevent curling.

Step 3. Lower heat to medium and let sizzle until fish is golden and caramelized around edges, about 2 to 3 minutes. Carefully flip fillets and add butter and thyme to pan. Tilt pan slightly to let the melted butter pool at one end. Use a spoon to baste the fish with the pooled butter. Continue basting until golden all over and cooked through, 45 to 90 seconds more, depending on the thickness of your fish. Serve immediately with chopped parsley (if using) and lemon wedges.
